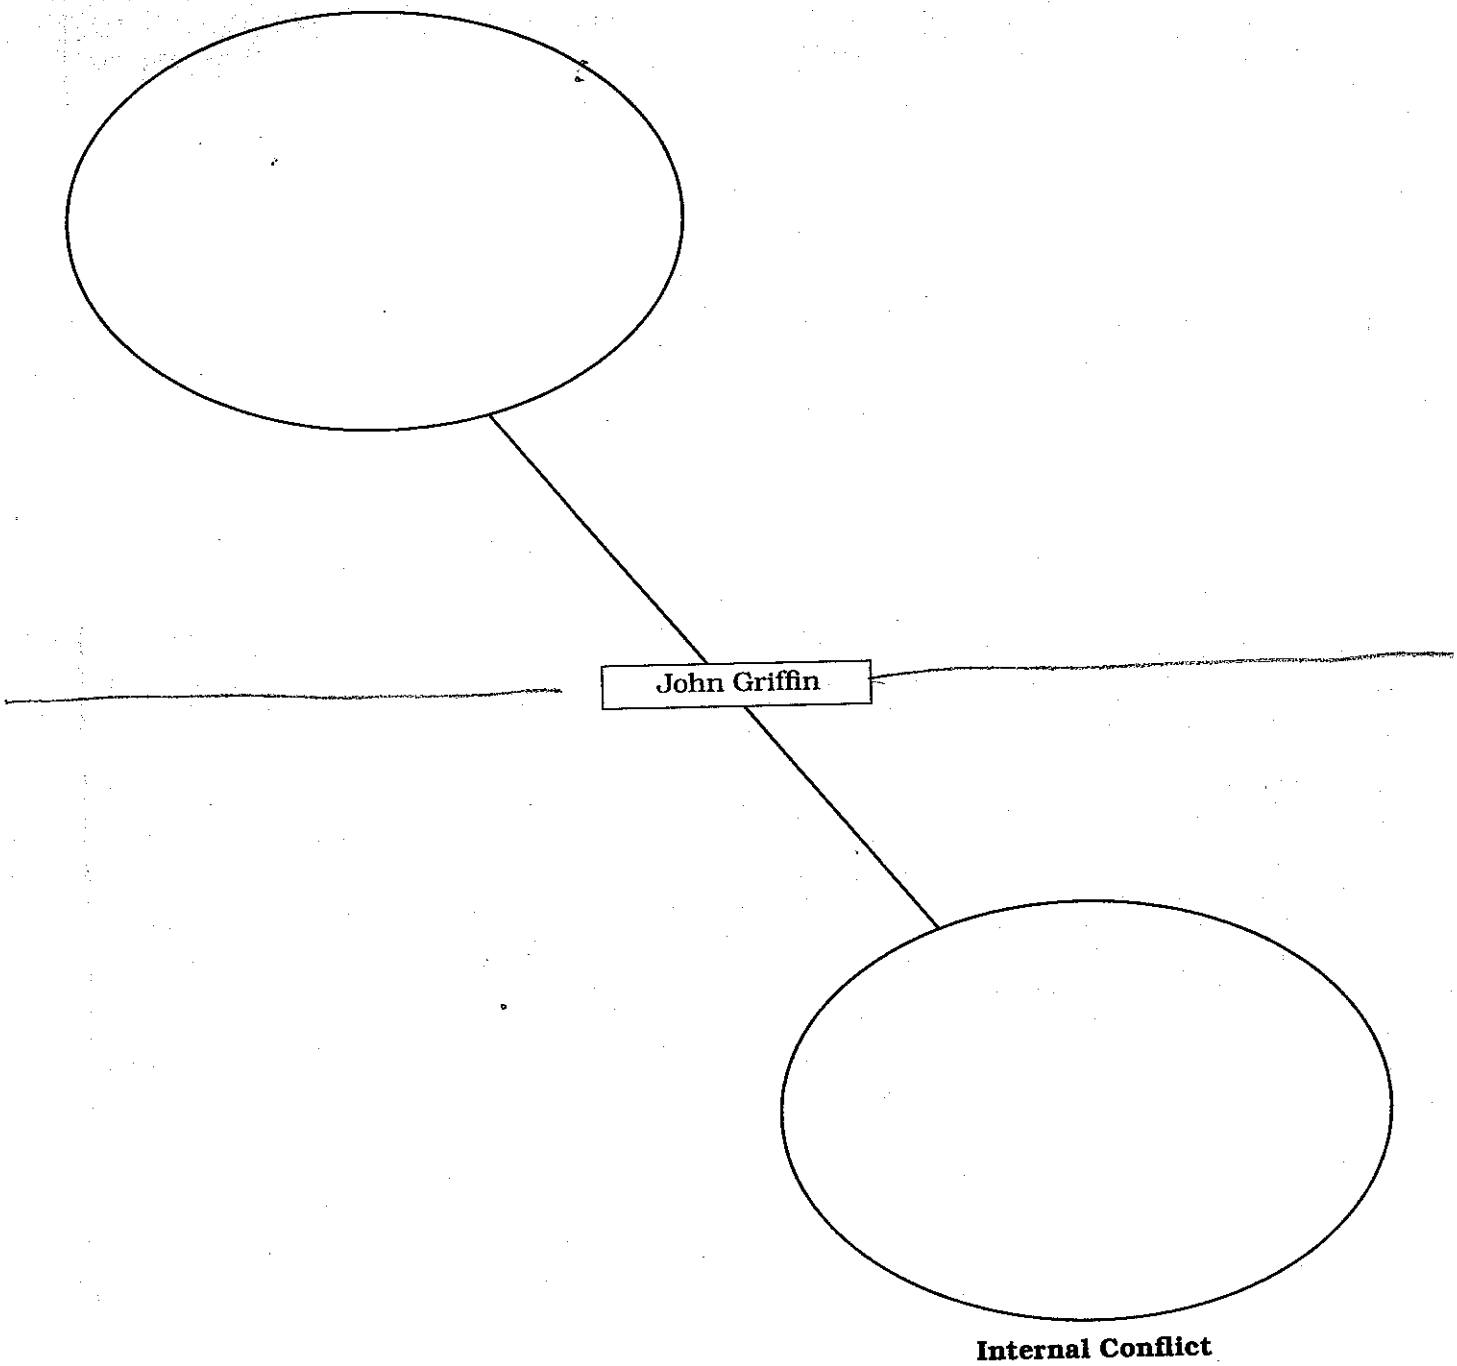
Name_____
Date_____

Fueling the Fire

Directions: External conflict occurs when a character struggles with an outside force. When the conflict takes place within the character's self, it is internal conflict. John Griffin sees external conflict around him and experiences it firsthand. Fill in specific examples of external conflicts he sees and experiences. Then list what internal conflicts Griffin faces because of the external conflicts.

External Conflict



Internal Conflict

© COPYRIGHT, The Center for Learning. Used with permission. Not for resale.